Face covering must be worn in the building, including at ring side.

For safety, while showing in the ring a face covering is not mandated. Clerks and ring people will be wearing a face covering along with anyone outside of the show ring or in the make-up space.

Each group or Pod needs a Liability Waiver form with all names listed to be handed in at time of arrival. Someone in the animal inspection area will be responsible for collecting these forms when you are unloading cattle.

Upon submitting your show Liability Waiver, you will be given wristbands for each individual listed on the waiver to be worn through the entirety of your swing.

ARRIVAL

Health papers and Registration papers must be with your cattle for inspection upon arrival. Animal inspection and check-in will happen BEFORE animals enter the barn.

Be respectful of unloading times.

We will be entering Gate 1 and drive down the back road to Gate 10, just like when the Big E fair is going on. We will be parking trucks and trailers on site during our show. We will have traffic directors once inside gate 10 to assist with parking and directions.

Arrival time for the AY/MS group is no earlier than 7pm with tack, campers and/or cattle and no later than 11pm for cattle on the evening of Saturday 10/10/20. We will be opened back up the 5am-Noon on Sunday 10/11/20 to receive cattle. Again all cattle have to go through our inspection process before entering the barn. We will limit unloading times to 30 minutes. Please be respectful.

We will be sending out a map of the fairgrounds to give everyone an idea of the arrival, inspection areas, tack unloading areas, and parking, etc.

BARN RULES

No sleeping, tents, cooking or food prep in the barn.

Once you have completed showing all your cattle and you are to leave the facilities.

Barn is to be emptied between each swing of cattle- i.e. all packs empty of cattle and trash, tack needs to be moved out of aisles even if it is staying for the next swing.

Pre-ordering of Straw, bagged shavings and Hay is required along with pre-pay to the ESE feed store. 413-205-5307

Bring your own Milking Equipment. The milking parlor and vacuum lines will NOT be available. The milk room will be open for hot water, milk disposal and cleaning.

SHOWDAY

Ringside programs will be available online ONLY and can be printed at home or looked at on your phone or tablet. No copies will be available (other than to those clerking the show).

Cowsmopolitan will be covering the show with photography and results, and will be the only photographer allowed in the showring and to take headshots.

Frank Putman will be doing live stream video via You-Tube.

Full official results will be posted after shows and administered to Breed Associations.

Absolutely no spectators will be allowed. Please direct friends and family to watch through the online programs.
